SATURDAY LUNCHEON CHOICES

Pre-Registration Required

All luncheons will take place at the DCU Center. Lunch will be a Taco and Fajita Bar, with crispy taco shells, flour tortillas, refried beans, marinated grilled chicken, seasoned ground beef, roasted peppers and onions, Spanish rice, and an assortment of cookies and squares. Regular and decaf coffee as well as tea provided.

There are several water fountains throughout the facility, don't forget to bring your water bottles!

Informal Community-Building Luncheon

This will be an unstructured time to converse and relax with clergy and delegates from all three conferences, catching up with old friends or making new ones. Please indicate this preference when you register.

Networking Luncheon

Our third-annual Southern New England conferences Annual Meeting is the perfect place for UCC ministers and delegates to meet others with similar passions of faith. For lunch on Saturday, all are invited to a networking luncheon. Themed tables will offer unique opportunities to gather informally and share ideas and contacts.

In order to attend, you must select the Networking Luncheon as your option when registering for the meeting. To be placed at a table of your choosing, please ensure you indicate three table preferences during registration. You will find Your table assignment in your registration packet.

Maximize the time you have in the company of hundreds of people of faith and strengthen relationships that will last long after the meeting convenes. Register soon, space is limited! Youth delegates are encouraged to attend this lunch!

God's Love Alive! Stories from our New Conference

– Please indicate your choice on the registration form –

In every corner of our new conference, our congregations and members are already breaking free of isolation, timidity and habit. We are answering Jesus' call and stepping out – inviting others into discipleship, modeling love and justice for these times, creating life-giving change in individuals and communities, and forming innovative partnerships for the common good. Come and hear how God is already doing new things among us, and share a story of your own. Please choose a subject below, and indicate on the registration form your 1st and 2nd choices, as seating in each is limited. You will find your topic assignment in your registration packet.
