

The Woodbury Workshop

January 4, 2019 • First Baptist Church • Worcester, MA

The Bauer-Broholm Workshop

January 5, 2019 • Yale Divinity School • New Haven, CT

Woodbury Workshops have been Andover Newton fixtures for 50+ years. Clergy, seminary students, and lay leaders attended these annual educational events to strengthen their capacities to lead. After a two-year break, Andover Newton resumes this tradition for 2019.

2019 will be the inception year for the Bauer-Broholm Workshop, a workshop for lay leaders in faith communities. Supported by a gift from Brad Bauer, DMin 2016, in honor of Richard Broholm's ministry of lay leadership development, this workshop will have the same speaker and topic as Woodbury, but with a laity focus.

The 2019 speaker is the sought-after consultant and workshop leader, Rev. Susan Beaumont. Her topic: Leadership in the Liminal Season.

Schedule for both workshops:

8:30-9:30 am	Registration
9:30-12:00 pm	Presentation from Rev. Susan Beaumont
12:00-2:00 pm	Lunch in breakout discussions
2:00-3:30 pm	Debrief with Rev. Susan Beaumont

Cost for participants: $25/person per workshop to cover lunch and materials

To register for either or both of these events, please visit the event listings on our website calendar: <https://andovernewton.yale.edu/calendar>

Andover Newton Seminary

409 Prospect Street
New Haven, CT 06511

Phone: 203-436-9970
Email: andovernewton@yale.edu

